

piper fishburn

505.301.1234 | piperf427@gmail.com

summary

recent school of architecture graduate with honors beginning a master of architecture with a concentration in themed environments integration. has experience working at architecture and interior design firms. skilled in 3d modeling and drafting programs including rhino, autocad, and revit. eager to work in a collaborative design team while continuing to grow as a designer.

education

master of architecture, themed environment integration concentration university of florida, citylabs - orlando graduating december 2028
beginning august 2026
bachelor of arts in architecture, university of new mexico
graduated spring 2026
magna cum laude
3.86 gpa

experience

● kirkpatrick & associates – intern

june 2025 – june 2026

- intern at a small, woman owned interior design firm specializing in hospitality.
- produced detailed autocad drawings for hotel clients.
- contributed to design presentations and participated in the design process and project execution.
- collaborated with clients and vendors to support material selection.
- worked on a variety of layouts and planning furniture.

● dekker – intern

june 2024

- completed a month-long internship at the leading architecture firm in the state.
- gained knowledge on how projects come together, how leed certification works, and the process of creating construction documents.
- assisted in site visits to experience construction and project management.
- assisted in an out-of-town learning workshop for young women that desire to have a career in stem one day.

● el pinto restaurant – host, cashier, expo, server

july 2022 – august 2025

- gained three years of experience at the largest restaurant in new mexico, rotating through multiple front-of-house positions.
- collaborated with team members on large parties, weddings, and everyday operations.
- managed multiple tasks at once with composure in a high-pressure environment.
- created positive guest experiences and solved issues quickly to keep customers satisfied.

skills

proficient – rhino, illustrator, autocad, photoshop familiar – indesign, revit, lumion